GRAZING BYE LAWS

S.R.O. 107, dated 11th Mar. 1960.—The following bye-laws for the regulation of the grazing of animals in Fategarh Cantonment made by the Cantonment Board, Fatehgarh, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 282(21) and 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by section 284(I) of the said Act, namely —

BYE LAWS FOR THE REGULATION OF THE GRAZING OF ANIMALS UNDER SECTION 282(21) AND 283

- 1 In these bye-laws, the word ‘animal’ means an animal of any description or sex and includes an elephant, camel, buffalo, horse, cow, bullock, calf, ass, pig, sheep, lamb, goat and kid
- 2 No animal shall be grazed on any land within the limits of Fatehgarh Cantonment, except enclosed compounds of bungalows and houses (without a pass from the Cantonment Executive Officer)
3. The Cantonment Board may from time to time set apart or close places for grazing and give a public notice thereof. Grazing will not be allowed on road sides except with special written permission of the Cantonment Executive Officer
- 4 A metal token with string shall be issued for every animal permitted to be grazed in the Cantonment on payment of actual cost. This token will not be transferable except with the previous permission of the Cantonment Executive Officer
- 5 The owner or the grazier shall produce the token and the pass for inspection whenever required by the Cantonment Executive Officer or any servant of the Cantonment Board
- 6 Grazing in the compounds of bungalows and houses will be confined to the animals belonging to the owners and occupants or their relatives and friends. Sale of grazing rights in the compound is forbidden
- 7 The Cantonment Board may during the year fix periods for grazing generally or in any particular area or areas and give a public notice thereof. Even during these fixed periods the Cantonment Executive Officer may temporarily stop grazing by issuing a public notice atleast one day in advance

8. Grazing of goats or their entry in the grazing areas will only be by special permission obtained previously from the Cantonment Executive Officer.
9. The Cantonment Executive Officer may from time to time prescribe routes along which the animals shall be led from or to the grazing places. While going on the road the animals shall be kept on the left so as to allow a clear passage to traffic. Where there is a grass border to the road the animals shall be confined to such border.
10. While being led on road a herd of animals shall not exceed 25. There shall be a distance of atleast 400 yards between two herds.
11. There shall be atleast one grazier with every 10 animals.
12. The grazier will not carry with them any implements except sickle or lathi.
13. Grazing hours will be fixed by the Cantonment Board from time to time and published for information.
14. The owner or the person incharge of an animal shall be bound to keep the animal under proper care and control and no damage shall be caused to the trees, hedges, plants or any other property.
15. Owners or graziers of animals shall at once report the occurence of any disease among their animals to the Cantonment Executive Officer, who shall, if necessary, close or restricted the grazing or take such other steps in order to prevent the spread of disease.
16. Any animal found grazing or going on road in the Cantonment in contravention of any of these bye-laws shall be liable to seizure by the Cantonment Executive Officer or any servant of the Board and sent to the Cattle Pound to be dealt with as if it had been impounded under the provisions of the Cattle Trespass Act, 1871. Any person obstructing such seizure will be deemed to have contravened this bye-law besides any other legal liability.
17. Any person committing or abetting a contravention of any of these bye-laws shall on conviction by a Magistrate be punishable with a fine which may extend to Rs. 20 for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first contravention.
18. These bye-laws supersede the bye-laws framed under section 282(21) and 283 of the Cantonment Act, 1924 and published with U.P. Government Municipal Department Notification No. 3997/XI-23-C-1924, dated the 18th Dec. 1934.
